WHO WE ARE

The Applegate Valley Community Newspaper, Inc. is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation dedicated to the publication of the Applegater newsmagazine, which, we feel, reflects the heart and soul of our community.

Our Mission

The Applegate Valley Community Newspaper, Inc. (AVCN), provides the many rural and diverse communities of the Applegate Watershed with a communications vehicle, the Applegater newsmagazine, free of charge to all watershed residents. Our quarterly paper presents constructive, relevant, educational and entertaining reports on a wide variety of subjects such as:

- natural resources
- ecology and other science information
- historical and current events
- community news and opinions

AVCN encourages and publishes differing viewpoints and, through the Applegater newsmagazine, acts as a clearinghouse for this diverse community. We are dedicated to working together with community members to maintain and enhance the quality of life that is unique to the Applegate Watershed.

PROTECTION OF COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL

All materials submitted for publication must pertain to the Applegate Valley, be original (no reprinted articles, please), and be the intellectual property of the author unless otherwise credited.

All articles submitted to the Applegater are subject to edit and publication at the newsmagazine's discretion and as space allows. When too many articles are submitted to include in any one issue, some articles may be placed on our website or held until the following issue.

Letters to the editor must be 450 words or less. Opinion pieces and articles cannot exceed 700 words. Community calendar submissions must be brief.

All photos submitted must be high resolution (300 dpi) or "large format" (e.g., 30" x 40"). If you have questions, email gater@applegater.org.

Photos submitted for the masthead are on a volunteer basis. Credit is given in the issue in which it appears, on our website, and on our Facebook page.

All submissions for the next issue must be received at gater@applegater.org by the deadline.

Applegater's
Summer Soirée fundraiser a success!

A huge thank you goes out to all who attended our June fundraiser!

Special thanks to Jocelyn Schmidt and Schmidt Family Vineyards, who provided the beautiful venue and abundant, delicious food and wine, to The Evening Shades band—Mark Thales, Sammy Kovic, Matt Tayvis, and Justen Nielsen—for treating us to their unique sounds, and to organizers Debbie Tollefson and Shelley Manning.

Plans are already under way for the Applegater's next big bash in 2017, which may be a far different and exciting evening. Stay tuned.

We appreciate your support!

FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Readers,

This being our Agriculture-Wine issue, be sure to check out our page-one feature articles about wine terroir, recreational marijuana, and a local CSA, and read about a new adventure for a local winery on page 14.

Opinion pieces are plentiful this issue (pages 19 - 21), but if your interests are more about birds, butterflies, bees, and bugs, see pages 6, 11, 12, and 13.

The Applegater welcomes a new board member (page 2), and good-byes are said by the fire district to a key staff member (page 2) and by the Applegate to a member of the community (page 5). Cantrall Buckley Park celebrated its 20th anniversary (page 10), and more interesting historical information about the park is also provided.

Although it's a ways away, we wish everyone a very happy and safe Thanksgiving holiday.

We'll be back with our Holiday-Arts issue in December. In the meantime, enjoy this latest issue. And, as always, feel free to send us your comments. We listen.
