

SUMMER 2011 Volume 4, No. 3

Applegate Valley Community Newspaper Serving Jackson and Josephine Counties — Circulation: 9,000

Postal Patron

New Applegate trails group

BY TOM CARSTENS AND DAVID CALAHAN

valley looks like from the air? Aside from and the double crests of Billy Mountain lie flying, there is a way to enjoy a bird's-eye closer in. Enjoy a picnic in flower-studded view of the Applegate: by driving up to mountain meadows while marveling at the some very accessible trails and roads along pristine wildlands surrounding Wellington the ridgeline that separates the Applegate Butte. In the other direction you will Valley from Forest Creek and the Rogue marvel at the emerald green slopes of River. Standing beneath huge pines and firs, Mt. Isabelle and the high ragged peaks of you can gaze upon the entire Thompson Timber Mountain and John's Peak beyond. Creek valley framed by the jagged Red The Rogue River seems so close from Buttes and the white tops of Dutchman

Ever wonder what our beautiful Peak and Mt. Ashland. Humbug Creek See TRAIL, page 20

Looking SW over Ruch with Little Applegate on the right. Aerial photo by Scott Harding.

BY J.D. ROGERS AND SARA AUSTIN

Farewell to our very own

Ruth Austin

The Applegater Newspaper sends its condolences to the Ruth Austin family. Ruth passed away peacefully at home in the early morning of July 1, 2011. She will truly be missed.

Ruth singlehandedly took on the job as sales representative for the Gater when grants from the Oregon Watershed Enhancement Board and other foundations dried up in the 1990s. Anyone who has done cold sales knows how difficult they can be, but Ruth hung in there, keeping the Applegater financially afloat while building her operator for the Coast Guard from 1944 reputation of trust, honesty and customer to 1946, and then worked for many years service among her clients.

Gater, Ruth was involved with helping bag the paper for mailing, distributing the Gater to many drop sites in the Applegate Watershed, and writing many wonderful articles for the paper over the years.

Ruth Austin was born in Liberty, New York, on August 1, 1924. During World War II, she served as a radio for the telephone company. In 1960, while From almost the start of the visiting her sister in San Diego, she decided to stay. There she married and raised three children: Catherine, William and Susan. In 1990, she came to the Applegate to visit her daughter Catherine just before her granddaughter, Sara, was born. Ruth fell in love with the area and community and remained here for the rest of her life. See RUTH, page 4

Ruth Austin and Sable

Another fun and successful fundraiser

BY PAULA RISSLER

the year, the third annual fundraiser Vineyards, The Academy of Wine and for the Applegater Newspaper was held Wooldridge Creek Winery. Sterling on Sunday, May 1 at the Applegate Bank in Jacksonville donated the wine River Lodge. Everyone enjoyed the glasses commemorating the event and fun, the food and the fine weather. several of the staff donated their time to contributed to the success of this event. provided music for our listening pleasure Joanna Davis and the Applegate River along with a set by the Applegater's Ranch Lodge and Restaurant provided own J.D. Rogers. The silent auction a wonderful BBQ chicken meal that focused on local services this year and was prepared by the Lodge staff and the bidding was friendly but competitive. served by Applegater volunteers. Blue Fox Farms provided the superb spring $5,500. Every dollar goes toward the salad mix. Local wineries donating production of the Applegater and these and serving the Applegate's finest wines funds guarantee at least one more were Plaisance Ranch, Rosella's Winery, issue! Sioux Rogers and Mary Driver

On one of the sunniest days of Slagle Creek Vineyards, Schmidt Family We appreciate the efforts of all who work that day. Duke Davis and Friends The fundraiser generated over presented the auction items in a beautifully organized fashion. A special thank you to Daena Tougher and Barbara Holiday for all their creative graphic-design work.

We would like to thank all the volunteers and the donors of merchandise for the silent auction. Pleaseseeour complete listing on page 13.

Thanks again to Joanna Davis and the Applegate Lodge for their generous donation of the food and the use of their lovely facility for this event.

Paula Rissler • 541-601-8949

Fun was had by young and old, with two legs and four. See you at our next "fun-raiser."

See FUNDRAISER, page 13

MEET THE NATIVES

Ticks and Lyme in the Applegate Watershed—page 20 The Applegate Watershed trees—page 12

INSIDE

The Oregon state insect—page 9 Silver-spotted tiger moth—page 9